

ISS International School

MOTHER TONGUE BOOK DONATION

ISS is collecting books written in mother tongue languages to encourage the reading of books in languages found within our school community!

We are asking that students who wish to donate either a birthday book or holiday book leave them in the box available for donations in the library.